

TOP SECRET

Director's Meeting

Thursday, 19 July 1951

Mr. Jackson reported that Mr. [redacted] seemed very upset by the fact that he had to clear all projects for $5,000 and up with CIA. Mr. [redacted] stated that it was more a question of physical procurement than it was of projects. There was considerable discussion and the DCI finally stated that he wants it worked out so that they can procure as much as possible on a reasonable basis. Mr. [redacted] has the matter under study. Mr. [redacted] reported that a letter had been received from [redacted] giving [redacted] full marks for Radio Free Europe.

25X1

25X1

25X1
25X1

25X1

Mr. [redacted] spoke again about Admiral Stevens' resignation and left a list of nine prospective candidates with the DCI.

25X1

Mr. [redacted] again mentioned Congressman Sparkman's talk on guerillas in China. The DCI said that Mr. Dulles would probably speak to him.

25X1

The DCI asked about [redacted]. Mr. [redacted] has heard nothing new but will check.

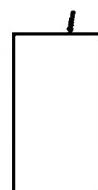

25X1

25X1

[redacted]

The DCI stated that from now on he will prefer to have the IAC meetings at 10:30.

25X1

TOP SECRET